

845 No. Michigan Ave.
Nov. 8, 1942.

Dear Jim and Eleanor,

No word yet of a new 1942
Champion so we think you were both probably "around"
at the installation Wed. nesday.

Haven't you met the Pagen yet? Their daughter's name is Dorcas though they call her Miasy and it would please your grandfather greatly, Jim, to know someone had preserved the name for he adored his grandmother Hull. He lived with his grandparents from his mother's death when he was about four. One lady of two - my father - was left for Aunt Emily & take care of and Aunt Ruth,

the tiniest was brought up by her Aunt Julia who was the mother of Laurens Page's grandfather. She always felt so much of a Benham as a Fish.

Sorry, I got in an extra generation.
It seems incredible there are as many as there are.

Howard and Belle went duck hunting with her father last Saturday. No ducks but Howard got a muddhen and it was a beautiful day for a picnic.

Allan Clark writes from Medellin that to his tremendous surprise he finds himself acting supt. of a language school they are starting. Spanish! and two years ago he was working at Japanese.

Katharine is director of religious education in a Detroit church.

Can you imagine how Miss Bergman felt when she suddenly heard eighteen Catholic fathers were arriving for dinner. No Korean cook either. Then she looked out at a strange procession for they were told they could take only what they could wear. She adds - "They wore plenty. This part permits it, too."

Later the men & the two women exchanged houses. Half an hour was permitted for that.

Then months after when they got to Kobe, they were marched four abreast through the imposing entrance to the Tor Hotel grounds "shield to the left" and brought up at the immigration bureau where they ate fish and raw cabbage three times a day till taken to Tokyo. Joan & Horace Underwood were allowed some marketing privileges that helped a bit but Dr. Bigger, who was allowed to visit a patient at the International Hospital (where your father had paratyphoid some twenty years ago) said the Japanese themselves were standing patiently in long lines and getting very, very little.

Kelli's brother who flies for Pan American had a three day trip to Ireland and is due back soon from a much longer trip. P.-A is under army control now.

Sam passed his German. That is the first big hurdle this year. It will be a stiff year and he has taken up several outside duties

- becoming air warden is the latest.

Tom is thriving and we had a beautiful day last Sunday in spite of rain.

Affectionately

- and waiting,

Mother.

You must have remonstrated effectively with the Columbian Laundry.
They sent me the check
I expected you to keep.

Many thanks!

Did I tell you about the burglar basement. H. & Q. went with police through pawn shops yesterday & found the two smaller suitcases. <sup>These</sup> may lead to the recovery of the other two.
